	Heifers were a pleasure to handle through the whole assessment process, they flowed well through the race and yards. The odd heifer slightly stirred in the crush however once released back into the yards settled quickly and were nice and calm. Overall lovely mob of cattle to handle.

Assessor Comments	A good quality line of Angus heifers. These heifers displayed good bone, length & thickness, they are out of Dams with some well known Angus bloodlines. These heifers would suit multiple markets, either to grow on to heavier feeder weights/export slaughter weights. However they do also offer enough breeding and quality to be an asset to any breeder herd.
