	Steers were very good to handle through the whole assessment process, with them all being nice and quiet in the yards and majority being quiet in race and crush, with only the odd one slightly stirring in the crush. Overall a lovely little mob to handle.

Assessor Comments	A nice quality line of Angus weaned steers. Steers present in good healthy store condition and are ready to power on for potential purchaser. Steers display good bone and length, and are out of Dams with some well known Angus Bloodlines, so should offer potential purchaser confidence in their doing ability. These steers are very good to handle and would suit anyone looking for cattle to grow to feeder weights / Export slaughter weights.
