Assessor Comments Buyers, on offer is a great line of lightweight Angus and Angus cross steers in store to forward store condition. These steers are only on the market due to dry seasonal conditions and will perform very well on good feed. They were great to handle in the yards, although the odd steer did become unsettled in the crush. Please note these steers were marked with rings on 25/02/2026, with the majority still wearing them. Also note that a small percentage of steers show some blue eye scarring, however this does not seem to be detrimental. Please note this vendor has on other lot in this sale.
