Steers were good to handle generally in the yards. The odd steer was agitated when put under pressure, typical of weaners.

Handled With	Bikes
Assessor Comments	A very stylish line of weaned Angus steers by Scotts and Killain bulls. These steers have been weaned for over a month now and are showing huge growth and frame for their age. These will power ahead on fresh pasture after being weaned onto a tall forage sorghum crop. Please note these are the tops of the whole of the vendors drop of weaners and will not disappoint.
