| Assessor Comments      | These Heifers offer opportunity to aquire high value genetics as future breeders or trade heifers. Vendor invests heavily on genetics for sound structure and growth. With two sister lines of heifers offered today and steer portion to be offered next week, a significant offering of genetic consistency is available.                                                                    |
