	Easy cattle to handle. Ran in from the holding yard with one person, and brought up from the back yard. All led up the race well, and were very good on the scales. Their last visit was for preg testing, and a few of the heifers that came through earlier were a bit anxious, but the heifers towards the end of weighing that had more of a 'cool off' were more settled on the scales. Very quiet in the paddock when let out for photos. No unnecessary trotting or spooking, just quietly fed out.
