		Stirry: 5 head
	These Heifers and Calves are quiet to handle in the paddock, but when under some pressure in the yards and crush they are a bit stirry. Generally good to handle and getting better with time.
Handled With	Bikes , On foot , Vehicles
Assessor Comments	This line of 1st time calvers with calves at foot have had a bit if a tough start to their breeding life, so they have got their working clothes on but doing a good job of their calves. They got a nice shine to their coats just need some feed in front of them and they will continue to move forward. The hard works been done the calves are on the ground and will become a handy unit moving forward.
