Assessor Comments	For Sale – 2024 Drop Black Tag Merino Ewe Lambs & Hoggets Second draft of approximately 530 head from a total drop of 1,000 Black Tag 2024 drop Merino ewe lambs and hoggets. These young ewes show plenty of size, length, and stretch, and would make an excellent addition to any breeding flock. With good maturity for age and a full year of growth behind them, they are well suited to go straight on and continue breeding productively for many years to come. Bred from good fertility sheep, this draft has had a fair tail removed prior to assessment, ensuring it represents a strong and even line. The ewes are born and bred at Stud Park South, originating from a strong, well-selected breeding program focused on fertility, structure, and longevity. This line represents the annual sale draft from this respected operation. A genuine opportunity to secure quality young future breeders.
