Assessor Comments	Lamb breeders, on offer is a nice line of Dorper ewe lambs, June/July 2025 drop. These ewes are Dell Dorper blood and were classed-in young ewes when purchased from the breeder. They show good breed type and most show good shedding traits. Ewes have been running in containment and would jump away with good paddock feed in front of them. Good opportunity to purchase quality Dorper ewe lambs to grow out and join later in the year.
