| Assessor Comments      | On offer is small but tidy line of young heifers that are on the market to make room for the cows and calves. These young heifers have been properly weaned, well handled and are exceptionally quiet cattle (refer video). Out of medium to large framed cows and with all animal health up to date they are ready to put away on a paddock of good feed.                                   |                                 |                |
