| Assessor Comments                        | A line of 65 July–August drop Merino ewe lambs presenting in wool with good skins and an even, stylish wool type. Lambs display good frame, structure and overall breed characteristics, with the potential to grow into productive future breeders. An attractive line offering sound genetics and good breeding potential. Genuine lambs teeth with the opportunity to continually feed on. Mouthed 15 lambs with only 1 starting to cut teeth. Please note lambs have been crutched after assessment. Vendor also had the wooly merino wether portion available in sale |
