Assessor Comments	Account The Hummocks, 675 Merino Wether Lambs averaging 35kg empty after an overnight curfew. These lambs were all individually weighed 30kg and up with a 20% tail removed and present in quite an even line. Historically these wethers would be retained as long term wool cutters with mature sheep cutting 5.5-6 kg of wool annually at 17.5 micron. Lambs are basically all frame and given the right weather and feed you could get them to a light trade kill before cutting teeth or chase the lucrative hogget market at a higher weight. Lambs are gudair vaccinated and mulesed. Lambs are priced to sell with a modest reserve of $160.
