Assessor Comments	The Finnerty family have been strong supporters of the nudie movement and have been successfully breeding hard doing nudies for 17 years, The farm is located in the southwest in a area that is renowned for wet winters. This has driven the Finnerty's to breed a very reliable hard doing sheep that can produce a high number of lambs in tough conditions. The Nudies off the Finnerty farm are selected on structure, fertility, growth and shedding. These young Ewe Lambs are an excellent example of the breed and have the generations behind them to excel in any operation. These Ewe Lambs were scanned in Lamb (wet) and were not tested for multiples. A neat line of September/October drop Cashmore Nudie ewe Lambs SIL to Nudie Rams are due to commence Lambing early September for 7 weeks.
