Assessor Comments	25 SIL Tattykeel Red Tag Certified Australian White ewe lambs from the respected G & D Armour breeding program. Averaging 55kg at assessment, these ewe lambs present in excellent condition and are ideally suited to a productive spring lambing. Approximately 25% are April 2025 drop, with the balance June/July 2025 drop, with seven hoggets identified throughout the entire draft. Originally retained as future breeders, they are now being offered due to the large number of replacement females available within the Armour program this season. The entire 135-head offering has collectively scanned 117% in lamb, with lambing expected from 3rd September to 14th October. The Armour family are long-time Australian White breeders, consistently purchasing stud and top-end flock rams from the annual Tattykeel Sales, selecting for shedding ability and carcass performance. Wether progeny are finished to export weights through the Margra Australian White branded lamb program, regularly achieving 50–52% dressing percentages. This lot forms part of a genuine run-out-the-gate offering of 135 SIL ewe lambs, presented in 4 lots of 25 and 1 lot of 35, with each lot displaying outstanding consistency, quality and proven Tattykeel genetics.
