| Assessor Comments           | Well bred line of Station mated composite x ewes. Ewes are expected to commence lambing early may. Ewes are generally larger frame types and October shorn. Joined to White Suffolk rams. Vendor only offering due to drying season and this line represents vendors complete age group choosing to retain older ewes. Vendor targets sucker market annually with good success. Strong focus on fertility and growth along with lowering the wool micron in his breeding. |
