| Other Health Information              | Ewes are healthy and in good condition leading into lambing. Having been yarded in wet yards for shearing, scanning and assessment within the last 4 weeks, buyers could find the odd ewe that presents a little sore on delivery.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                |  |           |     |      |     |      |     |
| Vendor Comments                       | We are proud to offer this group of 450 x SIL Maiden Ewes. Only for sale as they are surplus to our requirements as we have had an excellent scanning result. They represent a great opportunity for others to lamb down and retain as future breeders.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                |  |           |     |      |     |      |     |

| Assessor Comments                     | A very good group of 450 x 2024 Drop SIL Merino Maiden Ewes. An excellent opportunity for buyers to purchase Bundilla Blood maidens scanned in lamb at 140% to Lambpro Poll Dorset Sires. To commence lambing from the start of August for 5 weeks, the ewes present in excellent condition leading into winter. Twins are marked with a blue dot on the high bone. Healthy ewes that present evenly as a group, Faithful & Co sheep run in a high stocking rate environment and are sought out by previous buyers of their sheep. Ewes typically mature into 60/65kg ewes of large frame, excellent ewes to join to merino or terminal sires. Faithful & Co will offer 2 x groups of 450 SIL ewes. They will be delivered evenly out of the draft on a one for one basis to ensure even delivery to buyers. |                |  |           |     |      |     |      |     |
