Skin Comment

These hoggets have just started to pick up Bathurst burr. It would be assumed they will continue to pick up some burr until delivery.

Wool Comment

Medium skinned ewes that have the potential to cut a handy amount of medium micron wool.

Assessor Comments	NSM future breeder ewes hoggets. These ewes were purchased with the intentions of joining but due to unforeseen circumstances they are now being sold. They are muelsed and were shorn in February and with increased nutrition will join up for a spring lamb. They were purchased account JA Livingston and Partners, Mungindi. They are Nerstane blood with a production focus on wool, fertility & growth rates. From a medium to large framed classed flock with their whole life ahead of them. They are currently being trail fed faba beans and just starting to take to them. Ideal line of one mark ewes that will appreciate in value as the spring nears.
