Handled With	These steers were easy to handle in a small set up. When pressure applied a few were quite fast to move in yards then settled back in the mob when left. Same through the crush settled once Let out. Bikes , Dogs , On foot , Vehicles
Assessor Comments	Presenting the Annual draft of Sim-Angus steers on offer from our vendor today. These steers show excellent breed traits and offer plenty of ability to grow into large easy doing cattle. These steers show ample length and depth of carcass, already on a forward run. This line up would fit in any operation looking for that hybrid vigor to grow out and finish into heavy trade or bullock types. 100% Grass Fed and Electric fence trained.
