| Assessor Comments      | These are good framed steers with good depth, in healthy store condition. They are out of good large framed cows by a very good Millwood sires. They are showing the signs of the Autumn/Winter conditions but certainly look to have turned the corner and going ahead. All are showing good shape and stretch and should grow out to good weights.                                           |      |                         |      |                |      |
