	These steers were very good to handle in all parts of yards and crush, some steers did react negatively when being caught in the crush, this is not unusual and was to be expected after being run through the race and crush twice. They settled back to the mob quickly and it is evident that these steers have had a lot of handling.
Handled With	Bikes , Dogs , Vehicles
Assessor Comments	Buyers here is a opportunity to purchase 100 top of the drop Shorthorn & Angus x steers. These steers present in good healthy condition, stand on good bone and confirmation. They would ideally suit backgrounders looking for steers to put away on grass and crops to grow out to heavier weights. These steers are renowned performance bred cattle and are sought after by feedlots. They are only being sold due to dry conditions and are normally sold as heavy feeders. Please note these steers are the draft of 190 head there are another 90 head in same sale.
