No problems to handle at assessment. Three or Four with a bit of run in them up the race and out in the yards but of no real concern. The video is a fair representation of their temperament on the day of assessment.

Handled With	On foot , Vehicles
Assessor Comments	A mixed sex line of Akaushi Red Wagyu X Hereford calves that present in strong store condition. A most unusual article that offers an opportunity to an astute buyer. These cattle have the age and frame but not a lot of weight and would be perfect for a small scale feedlotter. The Akaushi are a rare breed of Wagyu known to grow and marble on grass so they should not necessarily be restricted to feedlots
