These steers were very good to handle on assessment and the vendor has put in a lot of effort weaning these steers and tailing them out. See videos for further description

Handled With	Bikes , Dogs
Assessor Comments	A line of 93 No.6 Weaned Charolais cross steers which are extremely well handled and ready to power ahead. Bred on forest country these steers are sired by high quality Kilkenny Charolais bulls and out of medium to large framed cows. These steers present with huge compensatory gains and have excellent length. The vendor has pre treated these steers with a pour on to assist clean buyers. The O'Brien family cattle have a great reputation with past buyers for there quiet temperament and excellent performance.
