Assessor Comments B & T Whitsed " Nariel Pines" present an outstanding line of 20 vendor-bred Angus heifers that represent the renowned Merridale Angus bloodline from top to bottom. Averaging 310kg at 9–10 months of age, these stylish young females display excellent frame, softness and femininity, making them an ideal proposition for buyers seeking quality future breeders. These heifers have been bred with maternal performance firmly in mind and possess the structural correctness, temperament and growth potential expected from the Merridale program. They are an exceptionally even line that would suit producers looking to retain and join as replacement females or continue breeding quality Angus cattle. A standout feature of this offering is their very quiet temperament. They have been well handled from a young age and are a pleasure to work with, making them suitable for all management systems. If you are searching for genuine, well-bred Merridale Angus heifers with proven genetics and the potential to become productive breeding females, these heifers deserve your strongest consideration.
