|                               | The Wallace calves can display a bit of run times, but generally this draft were good to handle. Filed out of yards nicely. Have typically settled well as they've matured.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                          |                             |         |

| Assessor Comments             | Offering a very well bred draft of quality Angus heifers presenting in fresh, forward store condition. Heifers are Banquet & Francs blood, with no expense spared on bull purchases. Tops of the drop, none retained with small tail removed. The Wallace herd are deep bodied, heavy boned cattle, with these heifers grassfed only and antibiotic free. They would make terrific matrons and also have the capacity to background or finish into any market. Very well bred heifers, ideal to breed or feed. (NOTE: vendor also offers 30 Angus steers, same drop in this sale). |                          |                             |         |
