Handled With	Cows were generally very good to handle in a small set of portable yards. There was the odd cow that resented being in the crush but settled quickly once back with main mob. Avoid having cows become isolated and better to work quietly. Bikes , Vehicles
Notable Traits	Traits 2 Head Active blight (treated) 5 Head Blue spot in eye 5 Head Old blue eye scar
Assessor Comments	Buyers, a good quality line of medium to large framed cows that present in mainly store condition. These cows were purchased out of Victoria a few years ago and are still in their breeding prime currently running with Wagyu bulls. They currently have weaner sized calves on them and they will be removed at delivery. They offer a restocked the opportunity to continue on as a breeding proposition and they have enough frame to fatten to heavy slaughter cow weights at some stage. A fair amount have old eye scarring but it will not affect their breeding performance. Buyer/truck driver urged not to load them too tight. There are other cows in the sale from the same vendor available to fill decks if required.
