| Assessor Comments  | Well bred steers that would respond very quickly shown quality feed. These steers have all the breeding behind them being Merribrook Angus blood. They have plenty of frame ready to stack the weight on. Vendor also has the younger brothers and sisters in this same sale. |                                           |                                     |
