Handled With
Assessor Comments	Extremely quiet, well-handled heifers with excellent temperaments, making them an ideal choice for small acreage, hobby farm, or family-run operations. These cattle are easy to work with, have been regularly handled, and present with the calm nature that buyers are looking for. All the background work has been done, allowing their new owners to step straight in and reap the benefits. They have been introduced to a pellet ration and have responded exceptionally well, showing strong growth and development. With a solid foundation already in place, these heifers are ready to continue performing and have plenty of scope to put on further weight. Whether you're looking for quiet cattle to finish for the market, grow out on grass, or simply want a manageable and hassle-free addition to your operation, these heifers tick all the boxes. They represent a genuine opportunity to purchase quality cattle that are quiet, healthy, and ready to thrive in their next environment. Please note vendor has another 4 lots in the sale. Consignment consists of 39 head.
