|              | Very easy cattle to handle in the yards, they are quiet and move well through the yards and force area. A couple where slightly stirry while under pressure in the weigh area but not really worth the mention. |      |                                           |      |                |

Assessor Comments Small line but Big on Quality, These steers hold their own when it comes to quality well bred cattle. Weight for age and breed quality is second to none. The vendors pride them selves on well bred quiet cattle that do naturally on grass and perform where ever their next destination is. Well worth considering a look at, the purchaser will not be disappointed.
