|                                       | Well educated young heifers that move through the yards with ease, Cattle that walked into the yards out of a small holder paddock by a couple working dogs. Vendor spent plenty of time educating cattle during the weaning stage which makes working with these heifers hassle free.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                 |           |                                     |

| Assessor Comments                     | A quality line of well bred heifers presenting an excellent opportunity to secure versatile females with great genetics behind them. These heifers are bred by OB Angus bulls with Dunoon, Te Mania & Millah Murrah genetics running through the sires renowned for performance, growth, structure & carcass quality. The Heifers display plenty of frame, length, style and attractive feminine characteristics, with good depth and capacity. They are a line that offers buyers flexibility, making them well suited to supermarket or feeder programs, while the quality of their breeding also makes them worthy prospects as future breeders. With a promising season ahead of us these heifers are well placed to continue developing and should bounce away with every opportunity to reach their potential. A genuine, well bred line of Angus heifers that can target any avenue. |                 |           |                                     |
