	Cattle flowed well through race and yards with a few slightly stirring while being weighed, however settled quickly once released back into bigger yard with the mob. Cattle were generally a pleasure to handle throughout the assessment process. One steer did remain slightly stirry in yards.
Handled With	Bikes
Assessor Comments	A good quality line of Angus x Angus steers. Steers display good length, frame and bone for age. With all the hard work of weaning and being taught to eat out of feeders done, these steers still offer the potential buyers plenty of compensatory gains. Cattle are only for sale now due to on going drier seasonal conditions in the area. Steers would suit potential buyers looking for cattle to grow out to domestic/heavy feeder weights or export slaughter weights. Please note the vendor has another lot of heifers in the same sale.
