Assessor Comments: Whanregarwen Pastoral Company are offering a tremendous opportunity to purchase an exceptional line of NSM Angus heifers that would be a welcomed addition into any breeding program. These particular animals represent a surplus draft of heifers that were deemed to light for joining when selected mid-late September. Once receiving a secondary drench & mineral injection they have improved in leaps & bounds. If you are looking for an honest draft of exceptionally well bred Angus heifers than please look no further. With the tightened shortage of breeding females across the country & all indications pointing to a significant rebuild in 2027 this is the opportunity to dig your heels in & be in front of the game.
