Assessor Comments	Annual offering of the Noonamah bred Poll Boonoke blood surplus merino ewe hoggets. 450 head to be offered as 2 x 225 head and delivered as a run out the gate. Scanned empty for buyer reassurance, on a rising plane of nutrition and ready for the ram of your choosing for an early autumn lambing. The Noonamah maiden ewes are independently classed annually. After a slow start to the season these hoggets are benefitting from the spring and have improved out of sight following shearing in July. 100% were weighed 47kg plus at assessment to average 55.5kg after a delivery adjustment with weight gain still being achieved. They are genetically large framed cutting around 21 micron wool as mature ewes with weights around 7kg season pending. Shorn, mulesed and with maturity on their side these ewes are the ideal investment for a first cross lamb operation giving you a return in the fleece and from a sucker in 2027. Reserved at $350/hd and presenting as value for money in the current climate.
