	The Murray Grey cows were very easy to handle throughout the assessment. They moved quietly through the yards and were calm during weighing and processing. Cows were also quiet and settled in the paddock, allowing me to walk amongst them and take photos with ease. Overall, a very quiet and well-handled line of cows.

Assessor Comments	A good line of 8–9 year old Murray Grey cows with growthy young calves at foot, sired by Thologolong Murray Grey bulls. Despite their age, these cows present with very sound mouths and plenty of life ahead of them, with the potential to continue breeding for a few more years. Cows present in forward condition and are extremely quiet and easy to handle, both in the yards and paddock. The calves are showing good early growth and doing well on their mothers. Cows have not been rejoined, giving purchasers the opportunity to join to the bull of their choice. A genuine, quiet line of cows and calves worthy of consideration.
