Handled With	Steers handled well through the yards and remembered their education from weaning. All coming from the backyards quietly, displaying a good block, and being respectful of the handler at all times. Just 7 steers that were a bit anxious on the noisy scales, doing some rocking and jumping about, listed above as slightly stirry. All settled well once back in the mob. Quiet to handle in the paddock and muster. Bikes , On foot , Vehicles
Notable Traits	Traits 6 Head Some Steers with Slight Rubbing
Assessor Comments	Very nice line of The Benbullen Farm steers, boasting an impressive weight for age, with many steers hitting the 400kg mark at just 9-11 months of age. Steers that have had the season go with them their whole life, never seeing a set back and even having pastures to go forward on from weaning. Quiet and easy to handle throughout all aspects of assessment making them an ideal line of young steers for any handler to take on and fatten.
