	Slightly nervous cattle to handle through assessment - typical of the Wagyu/Angus breed. Just having a slightly bigger flight zone, and being a bit anxious through the race/crush. In saying this, they all settled easily and handled well as a mob. Just having a larger flight zone under pressure.
Handled With	Bikes , On foot , Vehicles
Assessor Comments	A very nice example of well grown F1's to take forward and finish, either on some promising Spring pastures, or on the feed bunkers. Well started young cattle that have had every opportunity this Autumn - have taken it, and flown ahead with the season, packing on the kilo's and getting a real good back on them. F1's that have thrown well to the Angus in length, depth & shape, being out of stud heifers in the top 20% for RBY, And by the Peppermill Grove Wagyu sire, selected for IMF, EMA & RBY.
