| Assessor Comments            | This is a good line of red tag ewes from a productive flock. These are part of a flock reduction and will be sold in 2 lines (402 & 401) sold 1/2 or the lot at the sale. Ewes are preg tested each year with all drys sold off.                                                                                                                                                               |      |                |     |               |      |
