	The Saltpan steers would be some of the best temperament cattle I have ever handled. They were so quiet and easy to handle.
Handled With	Bikes , Vehicles
Assessor Comments	49 EU Angus steers, all weighed 315kg-427kg to av 369kg full. Aug/Sep drop and weaned in March. 4 years ago the vendors started their herd with Dollar angus cows and bulls and are now breeding our own stud bulls. This is the complete drop with a tail removed, they were exceptional to handle and flowed through the yards with no issues at all. They show great depth and bone for their age and if they are like their older brothers, they will grow into great bullocks. There are 5 steers with small white spots (old scars) on their eyes which is not seem as an issue and one steer has a white blaze on its head the size of a tennis ball, this can be removed if an issue. Very well bred steers with great genetics.
