Temperament	Yards	Crush	Paddock
	Quiet: 16 head Slightly Stirry: 3 head	Quiet: 13 head Slightly Stirry: 6 head	Temperament not assessed in Paddock

Weighing set up was less than ideal combined with very ordinary weather making it an uncomfortable situation for the Heifers. They behaved very well, especially considering this. 6 females were a little bit stirred up on the crush, having been poked and hassled to stand up on the scales, listed above as slightly stirry, all females settled immediately upon returning to the mob. Overall very good to handle, and would only improve in better conditions.

Handled With	Bikes , On foot , Vehicles
Assessor Comments	Very smart draft of females with plenty of depth, stand up and length about them. These are the top selected females chosen to retain and join. Selected for weight for age, visual appeal & maternal attributes. PTIC to a Black Limousin Bull with not long to go until calving. Buyers please Note. 1 female with a blue, slightly sunk eye with minimal vision. 2 Heifers noted with a minor blue tinge. 1 Heifer with white hair through the brush of her tail (birthmark) Please see photos & video for full contentment.
