 Skin Comment The Cobbler's pegs is most noticeable around the head bellies and sides. Refer photos and videos.
 Wool Comment These ewes are still producing a stylish fleece. The wool is extremely impressive for the age of these ewes, showing the strength in the breeding program at Checkers.

Vendor Bred Yes
 Bloodlines These ewes form part of the Checkers breeding flock. They have been breeding merino ewes for 36 years and have been on Merryville blood for 22 years.

Grazing Conditions Running on improved and native pastures. Season has been very good.

Assessor Comments	A great opportunity to purchase classed in breeding ewes from an outstanding flock of Merryville based merino ewes. The ewes are in excellent order, and are in wonderful condition to lamb down. They have an early November skin on them, it will not be long before the have enough length to shear and sell a clip of wool off. They have been scanned in lamb to Border Leicester rams, scanner indicated 320 twins and 80 singles. The ewes have a great frame and have been classed in breeders. These ewes are rarely offered for sale and come highly recommended. There is a small number of ewes with horns in this mob. The truck will be loaded to suit the number of ewes. If only 390 fit that will be considered a load.
