| Assessor Comments      | An excellent line of Merino whether lambs that are still growing. August/ September 2020 drop January shorn, Gudair Vac. These wethers would do a great job growing you some wool or for fattening job. They are in good health and are ready to go on with. Having been drenched and crutched all the work has been done just need to turning them out.                                     |                                                                                  |             |
