Assessor Comments	A complete line of late drop merino ewe lambs , supplementary fed on legumes and hay. These ewe lambs are reluctantly being sold due to seasonal conditions and will grow into great breeding ewes given the opportunity. Considering they are a complete drop, they are an even line of young ewes that show a tight lambing when born in 2020. They have a good start in the skin that shows a bright well nourished medium wool typical of Calcookara blood sheep. Anyone purchaser with feed find these ewes to be very productive in the future.
