| Assessor Comments  | A small lot of Shorthorn & Hereford females to take on. Not far away from putting some nice little Black Baldy/Roan calves                                                                                                                                                                        |                                     |

on the ground. All females have a bit of shape and style about them, perfect for a hobby farm operation to take on and retain, or calve down and sell as a unit. Please see photos & video for full contentment. Note. Vendor has 3 other lots in same sale.
