	Cattle were generally good to handle, they were inclined to moved quite quickly through gates while drafting. 1 cow wasn't impressed with being by herself and became quite agitated. In the crush they did become a bit frustrated however settled as soon as they were back with the mob.

Assessor Comments	A fantastic potential 3 in 1 opportunity with a good line of cows with calves at foot, rejoined back to the Kurra-Wirra Angus bulls. The cows are doing a great job on the calves which are fresh and sappy in good condition and showing great growth for age. The vendor has tried to emphasise good cattle handling techniques and has really had a positive influence on the cattle since they arrived at his property in the summer of 2020.
