Assessor Comments	Complete dispersal of a wonderful line of well bred superfine ewes, very stylish extremely soft 70/74 style that attract above average competition from the wool trade each years when they market there clip. this is a once in a life time to obtain well bred New England superfine ewes. with the extreme wet season in the area this years they is a small number of ewes that have slight color and in some cases some water damage generally on the back and shoulder region, but generally they are a very white breed of ewes. in the young ewes I noticed 2 ewes with some demo but it has lifted.
