Assessor Comments	EU Angus heifers that were originally to be retained in the herd as replacements, only being offered to reduce Bull requirements. These females are from a herd with a strong reputation for fertility, growth & carcase as well as performance either on grass or in feedlots. They are suitable to join to the bull of your choice to meet any number of high end markets. A percentage show signs of ringworm scarring around eyes & nose (please refer to photo's), a couple with white udders
