Assessor Comments	This is a good line of 25% second cross Dorper Aussie White ewes and 75% 1st cross Dorper Aussie White ewe lambs. These young ewes are well grown for their age with plenty of length, depth and bone. These lambs are bred out of large frame Boondarra blood Dorper ewes by top-grade Red Hill Australian White Rams. These young ewes are true to type showing good shedding traits with odd ewe still retaining short fleece. A must to consider.
