Assessor Comments	Here is an outstanding line of Border Leicester x Merino 1st cross ewe lambs, August / September 2020 drop. These ewes are very well grown, exhibiting tremendous length, and depth of body for their age. Sired by the Dunneild Border Leicester rams, out of the Freeth families, highly regarded, classed, Langdene blood ewes, this lot has had a small tail taken out, which has left a very even line of ewes that represent an excellent opportunity to purchase top class young ewes which are exceptionally well grown, and ready to join to the ram of your choice. 20 ewes were mouthed at assessment, all had lambs teeth, but given their age the odd hogget is a possibility. There are 6 ewes with scurs / horns, please refer to the photos.
