Assessor Comments	Offering a line of 370, 1.5yo, Pastora blood merino ewes. Maffra Lane Farming has been using Pastora bloodlines for the past 26 years, focusing on large framed ,heavy cutting, low micron, highly fertile sheep. As shown in the wool information, the Pastora sheep are exception wool cutters at very low micron with Maffra Lanes average micron coming in at just 18 micron while cutting 6.8kg of wool. These young ewes are presenting in forward store condition and have averaged 58kg at assessment with none assessed under 50kgs. With the breeding background that comes with these ewes they will easily suit either maternal or terminal lamb production into the future. Odd ewe also has horns.
