Assessor Comments	Tattykel blood ewe lambs, June/July drop. These young lambs are an excellent opportunity to get in to Aussie White. These ewes are well breed and all they need is time and they will grow into excellent ewes. Please note that at assessment it was noticed there were 4 ewes with very slight caramel colouring on the head/ back (refer photo). At assessment there were a couple with light dag that will be cleaned up prior to delivery. Please call for any further information.
