| Assessor Comments      | Sleigh Pastoral have been Pure Toland blood for 30 years. However this drop is sired by Glendonald Sires. As a result lambs demonstrate a good amount of vigor from the first cross, good length and frame which given the right opportunity will transpire into positive wool cut. Typical of invested genetics and appropriate management, these wether lambs present as a quality line. Skins are predominantly clean with very light seed on points as expected. Plenty of length and body for age. Weaned on the 6/09. Market Crutched on the 5/10th Opportunity to purchase a line of genuine wool growers wethers, or would also be ideal to background or feedlot into lucrative forward prices. Their sisters last year went 17.1 mic and 70% yield. mature Clip av 18.6 mic. Approx 40% present with small Scur's |                             |                           |     |
